“ Nell, this is your best friend from olden times. We went through a lot of heartache losing your son and my husband. We were best friends for a long time. We started a craft business together, traveling southwest Georgia looking for materials, I loved your daughter and sons so very much; especially Ronald. You and your husband stuck with me when my husband died, and we were best friends. I then moved to Virginia to be closer with family. Due to our health we have not stayed in touch as much.

To all of the family: I loved your mom very much and am grieved to hear of her passing. My thoughts and prayers go out to you.

Nell, I look forward to seeing you again in heaven.
