“ Grandma, I'm so grateful for the many memories we've shared through the years. My mind goes back to my childhood and how you and Granddaddy were always part of the most wonderful times from golden South Georgia Summers filled with homemade ice cream beneath the shade of the big oak tree next to the fish pond, silking corn and snapping peas, lightning bugs, mosquito bites and your nightly routine of covering each bite with campho-phenique and tucking me in and kissing me goodnight. You and Grandad were such a big part of my childhood and you made Christmas time truly magical. The Easter egg hunts and family fish frys...and walking the grove after your amazing holiday feasts.

As I grew older, we had many adventures and special times together and you were more than Grandma at that point...but also my friend. We always had a special bond and you always said I was in your heart. I want you to know...you will always be in mine.

The last several years were fraught with pain, heartache and illness. However, now you are free from the suffering of this world and I know that you are now at peace. It is my hope and belief that you will now experience a joy and happiness you did not experience this side of Heaven. I love you always. ❤️ Alison
