“ Very sorry to hear of Doc McKenzie's passing. He was such a good friend to my parents and helped my mom and my dad so much. He was there for my family when my mom passed in 2012 and her little dog, Basse, went to live with Doc as Basse, loved Doc so much. Rest in Peace, Doc. Your kindness will always be remembered. “ Heartfelt sympathy to the family of our dear friend, Doc McKenzie. He was such a great help around the house when we called him or just when he dropped by. He was especially helpful and sympathetic with my wife, Sandra, during the years we knew him, and particularly during the last few months of Sandra's decline before her death in August, 2012. Although Doc did not want any recognition for it, he was largely responsible for the arrangement and labor, gratis, for the large memorial showcase in the passenger terminal of Albany Airport memorializing the training of thousands of British pilots who trained at local air bases during World War II for wartime service in the Royal Air Force. - Bob Drake and Robin (Drake) Woske
